Report of the Committee appointed to collect Historical facts in regard to the old Meeting house at Acushnet.

The Friends old meeting house that was in Acushnet and formerly known by the name of the Head of the River meeting house that meeting house was built in the year 1729, and stood partly on the site where the new one now stands, the old meeting house was built after the style that many Friends meeting houses were built in those days, the main or front part of the house was two stories with a gallery, this part was sold and taken down, the back part was one story resembling the shape a porch when attached to the main body of a dwelling house.

This part was sold to Daniel Thornton son of the late Eliza Thornton, deceased and moved on to his land and purchased of for a dwelling house and now it stands a few rods east of the gable roof house once owned and occupied by John B. Lums, a minister of the Society of Friends who spent for many years with Friends and his neighbors in the old meeting house to worship their Heavenly Father. We believe many persons were brought by his ministry and converted out of sin and darkness into that marvelous Light. The Long Plain Reparatative meeting in the year 1870 decided to dispose of the old meeting house and to have a new one built. The meeting chose a Committee to carry out their wish, which consisted of the following named Friends, Edward G. Dillingham Jonathan Green, and William P. Howland and this Committee carried out the wishes of said meeting the same year.

23rd May 1864 Sabbath day 2nd Cong. Union Separative meeting of friends.
Died in Fairhaven third Sabbath 28th 1864 Jonathan G. Owen, a member of this meeting.
In making this last record concerning our beloved and respected friend, whose the hand of Divine Providence has removed from our midst, it is fitting that we add a tribute to his memory, even though it be but a faint echoing of the unexpressed thoughts of his many friends.

As a Church we shall miss his wise counsel, his ever ready helping hand, and the faithful discharge of important duties placed upon him.

Indubitably, we shall realize that the vacancy of his accustomed place at the hour of worship will not soon be filled by one more valiant in attendance. That now by a more distinct type of character will attract to himself the public and private trusts of his fellow citizens and his townships. The testimony of his life in its power of health and the utterance of his last and suffering hours assure us that that peace was his which the world cannot give nor even take away.

Yours sincerely,
 B. F. Brewster
